Landmark Properties Group Adds Key Manager

Denver, CO (December 7, 2007) -- Landmark Properties Group announces the addition of veteran real estate professional Nell Schoeler to the company's management team. As vice president and project manager, Schoeler will be responsible for oversight and management of the company's development projects from commencement through disposition.

"Landmark Properties is honored and pleased to add Nell to our management team," said Ray Pittman, founder and president of Landmark Properties Group. "Her experience and in-depth knowledge of the real estate industry makes her an invaluable member of our team."

Schoeler, previously the director of Real Estate & Facilities Management for Storage Technology Corporation/Sun Microsystems, brings solid leadership skills to Landmark Properties Group and 20 years of real estate experience. Prior to joining StorageTek/Sun, Schoeler worked for small, entrepreneurial real estate companies as well as Travelers Realty Investment Company, a large institutional real estate investment company. Her experience spans office, industrial, retail and residential real estate.

Landmark Properties Group is a Denver-based company that develops large scale, high-quality, mixed-use office and industrial projects throughout metropolitan Denver. It was founded in
